Venetian Fortress of Skopelos

39.1244027, 23.7273805

To reach the Castle, visitors must ascend the steps next to the Panayitsa of Pyrgos Church (Virgin Mary of the Tower), which lies at the edge of Skopelos' old port. This scenic route offers not only significant archaeological value but also a stunning view of the surrounding area.

As you wander through the narrow, winding cobblestone paths of the Kastro (Castle) district, it feels as though you've stepped back in time to the Byzantine era or even into the days when pirates roamed the seas.
