The large open beach, with golden sand and shallow waters, is located one kilometer from Nea Makri and is ideal for swimming and sunbathing.

It gathers many young people, locals as well as from other areas because it has a beach bar, sports fields, many options in water sports and diving.

On weekends it is bustling with people enjoying the sea and the neighboring taverns.

In front of the densely built settlement of Matiou, the pine trees that grow in the small bay reach the beach, forming a green carpet that descends to the sea.

The spot was loved and inhabited for its clear blue waters, fine sand and shallow shore that does not deepen and is suitable for families with small children, the elderly and beginners in swimming.

For more peace try the small pebbly bays between Mati and Agios Andreas with rocks that make caves.
