

Paradise beach Kos

36.684501202214, 26.948454380035

On the southwest side of the island, the heavenly beach has deservedly earned its name.

White fine sand, clear, shallow waters, watching the sunset full of people enjoying water sports, the welcoming sea and the beautiful view from the cafes and taverns.

The 33 kilometers that separate Paradise Beach from the town of Kos are no obstacle for any visitor.
