The Panhellenic Tourist Guides' Federation (PTGF) was founded in the year 1985, as an umbrella second-degree association, which represents all qualified tourist guides' associations of Greece.

PTGF's website offers the opportunity to the professional qualified tourist guides to contact to each other, to be informed about matters related to their profession, insurance and social security, legislation, education, conventions and seminars, as well as matters concerning environmental protection in archaeological sites and tourist routes of Greece.

It also offers to all tourism, culture and education professional sectors the chance to find and book a qualified tourist guide for Greece, through all local first-degree tourist guides' associations.

In these pages there is also information about tourist guides' activities, a useful guide to those who are interested in being accredited as tourist guides of Greece , articles published about the profession, useful links to other websites and the opportunity to find a professional licensed tourist guide all over Greece.
